

Dear FCC: I'm
deeply concerned with the recent Sinclair Broadcast Group's promotion of what seems to be a
political propaganda
piece under the guise of "news."
Their recent actions
have illustrated the dangers to localism
caused by media
consolidation.

While I have not seen the piece on John Kerry they intend to run this week, it sounds like a bunch of dangerous
lies that will pass
off "information."

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies
control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line
and less of what we need for our democracy. Instead of something
produced at "News Central" far away,
it's more important
that we see real people from our own communities and more
substantive news
about issues that matter.

Sinclair's actions
show why we need to strengthen media
ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license
renewal process
needs to involve
more than a returned postcard.

Please take into consideration this complaint, and do
consider
scrutinizing Sinclai

in the near future.
Thank you.
